Dear Emile:

Thank you for agreeing to supply food for the Symphony Book Fair Volunteers on Thursday, April 10, 2003. Your suggestion of Saffron Chicken, Salad, and bread sounds wonderful. I have agreed to have the food picked up and delivered.

As you may know, this is the 50th year that Symphony Book Fair has been a major benefit to the Orchestra. The event is strictly a volunteer project, and as such is tax-deductible for your business.

Your business name will be posted prominently in the volunteer lounge. If you like, you may send fliers with the delivery.

Yours truly,

Lynne S. Hood
Volunteer coordinator
